The Occupational Physicians Scholarship Fund is pleased to announce the successful conclusion of its recent funding campaign, which raised over $2.7 million and will enable OPSF to continue awarding scholarships through the year 2011. This success would not have been possible without the support of our corporate contributors (listed on the right), the Corporate Campaign Committee, the members of ACOEM, and the efforts of the OPSF Board of Trustees.

The Corporate Campaign Committee, in particular, was integral in helping to solicit each corporate gift or pledge and was chaired by Lee Raymond, Chairman of Exxon Corporation. Serving as Co-Chairs were: Robert Allen, Chairman of AT&T; Hans Becherer, CEO of Deere & Company; Gordon Brunner, Senior Vice President of Procter & Gamble; Charles Heimbold, CEO of Bristol-Myers Squibb; Glen Hiner, CEO of Owens Corning; J. Roger Hirl, CEO of Occidental Chemical; Richard Kogan, CEO of Schering-Plough; Lou Noto, CEO of Mobil Corporation; Alexander Trotman, CEO of Ford Motor Company; and Thomas Usher, CEO of USX.

Thanks to all of the campaign participants for helping us to fulfill the mission of OPSF, providing scholarships to worthy physicians as they pursue a specialty in occupational and environmental medicine. Please join OPSF in congratulating the next class of OPSF scholars for the 1999-2000 academic year.
